

Dear Sirs:

When we signed on to the Do Not Call List we really meant it! We do not appreciate telemarketers intruding on our space with sales pitches to buy products, commodities, etc. Won't you please consider strengthening, not weakening, consumer protection laws so that we can retain the peace that these laws have afforded us. Many thanks from many grateful consumers.

Very Respectfully,
George & Mary Strychalski